*Please note: An international student with F-1 visa status working without valid authorization is considered to be in violation of federal visa regulation and will result in the student's loss of legal status in the U.S. and subject him/her to deportation. An F-1 student must obtain work authorization on his/her Form I-20 Certificate of Eligibility for Nonimmigrant (F-1) student status and present a photocopy of the I-20 to the employer BEFORE he/she can legally start working. Employer must require the student to stop working immediately after the current work authorization expires.
